The Crown Agents for the British Colonies

MULTIPLE FUNCTIONS OF THE GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT WHICH ACTS AS LIAISON BETWEEN THE CROWN COLONIES AND THE STAMP TRADE.

ANSWER TO "WHERE CAN I BUY COLONIALS IN LONDON AT FACE VALUE?"

By ALBERT H. HARRIS

Once a rumor has a start, it has been said that a contradiction can never overtake it. Certainly that seems so in regard to stamp collectors and the Crown Agents, for it is extraordinary how widespread is the belief, both at home and abroad, not only that the Crown Agents in London sell the Stamps of the British Colonies, but that they do so at face-value, and that all a stamp dealer has to do when he wants any is to go along and buy some—a delightfully simple process which unfortunately has no foundation in fact. The object of this article is to provide some insight into the functions of the Crown Agents' Office, and to remove such misapprehensions as readers may possess.

THE building occupied by the Crown Agents for the Colonies is No. 4 Millbank, to reach which one passes from Parliament Square, Westminster, past the House of Lords. Overlooking the Thames, it is a fine corner block of modern construction, with spacious entrance hall and majestic staircase. So much for its location. Now as to its origin.

In the days of George IV every colony had its own agent in London, through whom was imported any supplies the colony might require from the home country, and to represent the colony in London in other ways.

As the colonies developed, however, complaints were made by the Colonial governments until, in 1833, after an enquiry into the working of the agencies, a consolidated agency was formed to undertake the business, under the title of the Agents General for the Crown Colonies, the first Agents General being George Baillie and Edward Barnard, two retired Colonial office clerks.

The consolidated agency did not work too well, doubtless owing to lack of experience, and colonies still protested. In consequence, a reorganization was effected in 1858 under Mr. (afterwards Sir) Penrose Julyan, and in 1863 the title was changed to the present one of the Crown Agents for the Colonies. In 1878 the relations between the Crown Agents and the colonies under responsible government were reviewed, and for reasons of high policy it was decided to terminate them—an incident reflected in stamp history by the alteration of the watermark of the stamps of Cape of Good Hope to an "anchor," as they could no longer avail themselves of the "CA" (Crown Agents') supplies.

Once more an investigation of the work of the Crown Agents was made by Joseph Chamberlain in 1903, and he placed on record his opinion that the system had worked well for the colonies, and that the Crown Agents had deserved the confidence of the government of the Crown Colonies and of successive Secretaries of State.

FUNCTIONS AND MAINTENANCE

The resulting saving to the colonies by this plan is immense, not only in administration expenses, but in cost of materials. Blue prints, specifications or samples are filed of almost every conceivable colonial requirement, many of them standardised—such, for example, as certain types of bridges or locomotives—so that experience and service are pooled for the general benefit. Maintenance of the Crown Agents is also proportionately charged at the rate of one-and-one-third per cent.—or 26/8 per £100—on all orders placed. Their turnover is said to be some £10,000,000 per annum. To-day the Crown Agents are appointed by the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the enterprise is administered on the lines of the Civil Service, with a staff of some six hundred

KEY PLATES

The watermark "C.A." is a good example of Crown Agents' standardisation methods. The Agents have the paper made in bulk, and supply it to the printers of the stamps. Similarly with the "key" and "duty" plates, very considerable economy has been effected. The Crown Agents retain the master-die bearing the King's head, and the cost of the key-plates is borne by the Colonies in proportion to the quantities of stamps printed on their behalf. With the growth in the demand for stamps, however, many colonies have considered it wise to forego the economy of the key-plate system in favour of pictorials, the greater cost being more than balanced by the greater revenue from collectors.

The reason for the reversion to the key-plate system for the new Georges has simply been that under no other plan would it have been possible to meet the wishes of so many colonies to introduce them in time for the Coronation. Even so, the capacity of the printers has been taxed to the utmost, for the provision of supplies to some forty-five colonies at the same time is no light undertaking. It's for the same reason that the number of denominations has been restricted.

SANCTION

Sanction for new stamps has to be obtained by the Crown Colonies from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, and it has been the policy of successive Secretaries to confine such permission to issues considered necessary for postal purposes. In principle, the Crown Colonies have been given to understand that a new issue should not be asked for more than once in ten years without some very special justification—such, for example, as a change of currency. Exceptions have occasionally been made for such events as centenaries as a concession to local sentiment; but if the main advantage urged, when putting forward a claim, is the revenue to be derived from stamp collectors, it is invariably met with a polite but firm refusal. Hence the distinction in the official attitude between Jubilee and Coronation stamps. The case for the former was unanswerable, but as regards the Coronation the view was taken that the necessary change of head on the stamps of all the colonies was sufficient and that two new sets for all, or the majority, of colonies in the same year would be quite without justification.

STAMP AGENCY

The function of the Crown Agents in relation to the stamp trade has been of gradual growth, as stamp importations have increased. Dealers ordering from the colonies developed the habit of having consignments delivered to the Crown Agents in London, where they took them up against cash on arrival, so avoiding the necessity of parting with their money before they received the stamps.

Thus the position grew up that every time a new issue went out the Colonial postmasters immediately shipped back consignments to the Crown Agents in London with instructions to deliver to the dealers who had ordered them against cash. To circumvent this needless transit, the Crown Agents came to an arrangement with the majority of the colonies that they should circulate a list, to those who desired to receive it, of new stamps pending. Also that if dealers notified them of the quantity required, they should keep back from the shipment the requisite number to fill these orders.

TERMS

But for this service the dealers have to pay. In the first place, references are required, and in no case is a dealer placed on the Crown Agents' approved list unless he is a permanent resident in Great Britain. Secondly, there is a minimum commission charged of 10/- on the first £200 of any colony's consignment, or any part thereof, and one-quarter of one percent. (5/- per £100) on any greater purchase at one time.* The stamps must be taken up without delay on notification that they are ready, and any failure to do so will endanger future supplies, if it does not result in the offender's name being removed from the approved list altogether.

Only the stamps thus ordered before they are out are kept back in London. The rest of the supply is dispatched to the colony, and dealers wanting to renew their supplies must apply to the colony for them. They may send out the cash and suffer the risk and delay; or they may have them consigned back to the Crown Agents, in which case there is another 10/- to pay for the accommodation.

NO LONDON STOCK

It should therefore now be clear that no stamps of the Crown Colonies are ever available in London except a portion of the initial supplies of a new issue, intercepted in the manner described. Also that the dealers themselves have to pay commission which works out on the following scale:-

For £10 worth 5%	for each colony.
£20 " 2½%	" " "
£40 " 1¼%	" " "
£50 " 1%	" " "
£100 " ½%	" " "
£200 or over ¼%	" " "

Assuming a dealer orders stamps of forty colonies, and they arrive at the same time, he has to pay £20 commission whether his order is £10 or £200 worth of each. He must also pay his own staff to perform the tedious and tiresome work of tearing the sheets up into singles. Not more than five sheets can be safely torn together; and even so, there is always a percentage of waste through some getting accidentally torn. The dealer also has to take all risks of badly centred copies, for the stock is not prepared for philatelists, and must be taken as it comes.

And what collector wants to do that, anyway?

*The only exception that has ever been made to this arrangement was in the case of the Jubilee stamps, when the minimum commission was reduced to 1/- per colony.

Stamp News From Washington

W. C. RICE, ARLINGTON, VA.

At the time of the last Washington letter the final figures for the number of 3-cent covers of the Army-Navy series had not been compiled. There were 320,888 first day covers mailed. There certainly is some difference between that figure and the 42,392 covers of the 20c and 50c stamps three days before.

Each day announcements are expected from the Postoffice as to when the flight to Hong Kong is to take place and the postage rates for mail coming this way. So far this week nothing has developed other than a few unverified comments which are here set forth for what they are worth. Collectors should not act on this but should wait for the Post Office official announcement as changes may develop at the last minute.

It is understood the arrangements made by the United States call for carrying of collector's mail to Hong Kong with its return by boat—as was done in the case of mail sent to Manila on the first flight there. The covers are to have postage affixed and addressed to the collector's local address, then forwarded under separate cover to the postmaster at the starting point—whether San Francisco, Hawaii, Guam or the other points.

Hong Kong is as far as the United States will be able to control the mail for its return to the United States, but the flight is expected to continue to Canton, China. Therefore the real covers will be those going the full distance but they must be addressed to someone in China and then returned under separate cover.

The writer never could wax enthusiastic about flight covers possibly because they do not travel in the manner for which the mail service was designed, namely, travel the shortest distance and time from point mailed to destination. If one mails a letter to Massachusetts and it goes to Michigan first the Department stamps the letter with the words "Misrouted or missent". It is true the Post Office Department encourages mail for first flights which perhaps takes them from the same category officially but—well it's lucky we do not all like the same things.

The address by Harlee Branch, Second Assistant Postmaster General, before members of the Transportation Club of Washington at the Hotel Raleigh, Thursday, February 18, 1937, carries some facts of interest to collectors. We quote therefrom—"From its beginning the Post Office Department has used all available means for transporting the mail, and it has been by the aid of the Federal Government—frequently through mail contracts and subsidies—that new forms of transportation have been developed and sustained. This was the case with the railroads, the canals, ocean shipping and the air transport lines, and even now the government is subsidizing American shipping and both our domestic and our foreign aviation. Also it is, through mail pay, liberally aiding the railroads.

Since the establishment of our postal system, mail has been carried by foot runners, dog sleds, reindeer, by men employing snow shoes and skis, in canoes, canal boats, by sailing ships and steam ships, by horseback, on camels, trains, automobiles and airplanes.

"We find that Benjamin Franklin, who organized the colonial postal service in this country, made a map of the Gulf Stream in 1760. He published his findings which enabled sailing vessels, by avoiding the Gulf Stream, to save as much as two weeks time in their trips from England to the Colonies.

"Ever since, the Post Office Department has sought to provide the quickest and most direct dispatch for the mails.

"The Post Office Department as such began its operations in the year 1789, and the first piece of mail matter transported was dated October 3rd of that year. At that time there were only 75 post offices and approximately 800 miles of post routes.

"An idea of the tremendous growth and development of the Post Office Department . . . is realized from the records of the fiscal year 1936—During that year there were 45,233 post offices in the United States—and 675 million miles were covered. . . ."

Editor's Comment

LINPRINT This month will be a busy TO MOVE one in the offices of LINPRINT. For the past two months much work has been done on the new building that has been acquired for our new location. This new location is to be at 531-533 N. Park Street. The new building is 30½x150 feet and has a two story frontage 30½x30 feet. A large basement well lighted is also beneath the building.

At present the building is being thoroughly remodeled and equipped for our plant. A steam heating system is being installed, the interior is being finished and some new construction being added.

We hope to be ready to move into this new location at the end of this month. The exact dates will be announced later and due to this change, the issue of the Weekly both for the week before and after we make the move will be squeezed down to 16 pages and for the week prior to the removal we will endeavor to get the paper out a day earlier, thus having an extra day in which to make the change. Should there be delay in getting things operating again after the move, the issue following the removal may be a day late.

Just as soon as we make this change, the annual meeting of stockholders will be held on the first Monday in April. At this meeting the annual 6% dividend will be ordered paid and distributed to all stockholders of record on Preferred Stock.

Following this, we will be prepared with sufficient space to proceed with our program for new equipment. We will hope then to offer our stock again with the idea of disposing of the remainder of the available stock so that we can install a new magazine press and thus continue to enlarge and increase the circulation of Linn's Weekly Stamp News.

If you are looking for a real investment that will pay you 6% you should ask for one of our Prospectus and do your bit toward making your favorite stamp magazine bigger and better.

CORONATION Announcement in our STAMP ALBUM last issue of the forthcoming Coronation Postage Stamp Album has already brought many inquiries from collectors and dealers so that we feel it desirable to make further announcement regarding this new album.

Handsome drawings are being made for the cover. Beautiful portraits of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth will be included in the album.

We shall shortly issue a printed prospectus showing these illustrations as well as a sample page from the book. Announcement of this circular will be made as soon as ready. In the meantime we are booking orders for the album and advance orders will be filled from the original first printing.

NEW LINPRINT ALBUM PAGES We now have ready for distribution, Unit

Number 6 of the LINPRINT Unit System Album Pages. This new Unit of 16 pages carries spaces for all regular issues of postage stamps of the 20th Century that were issued in sheets and perforated for regular use. Thus the pages do not contain spaces for the Commemoratives neither are there spaces for imperforate stamps or coil stamps on these pages. Pages for these latter items will be issued later.

Both lists mailed to you upon receipt of 10c (deductible from first order over $1.00).

Since finishing these pages we are pleased with their appearance and be-

Laff This Off

The Cincinnati Enquirer of February 20th had to go all the way to Hamilton, Ohio, to get copies of the first 3c Army and Navy stamp that came to any collector in that part of the state. Leastwise the Enquirer prints large size pictures of both of the stamps and states that they were received by E. M. Ladley of Hamilton. The Enquirer states:

"According to H. B. Grevey, postmaster, a recent order for the first time permits the printing intact of the picture of a stamp. Heretofore, stamps had to be split before a facsimile could be taken from them. They must not be reproduced in the exact size, however, Grevey said."

Now laugh that off.

RARER STAMPS

Quantities of rare stamps, in fine condition, accumulated from various sources, of which the catalogue value has been forgotten are put into a box.

When there was spare time these were originally intended to be mounted and catalogued up.

It is astonishing how quickly these accumulate and the value that gets tied up.

Many are worth third cat. some fourth and others may be only sixth.

Bills accumulate as well as stamps and we cannot leave these idle for future use, so we are clearing the lot out counted as they come at 100 for $1; 500 for $4.50.

Enormous cat. value in each lot.

Columbus Philatelic Club
Annual Meet in May

May 15th and 16th have been definitely selected as the dates for the Annual Dinner, Exhibition, Bourse and Philatelic Party of the Columbus Philatelic Club. Heretofore this event has been held in January. The change of date has been made because of the unpleasant weather in the winter months and the difficulty of making the trip by those who wish to attend this meet. The Club anticipates a much more successful and larger gathering in May. Details and plans will be printed at a later date.

The Metco Messenger

Stamp collector employees of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York have long maintained a stamp club known as the "Metco Stamp Club." The club issues a monthly bulletin under the name Metco Messenger and the issue for December is an elaborate affair of 28 pages, all of which are mimeographed and bound together with a cover in two colors.

The publication is devoted chiefly to news of interest to club members and in addition has articles on stamps of various countries by the members of the club.

This is certainly one of the most pretentious club bulletins that comes to our attention.

Tipex-Pipek-Snipex

If the craze for exhibition sheets keeps on growing over the world, we will probably arrive at WHYFEX and finally POOHPOOHPEX—and then start on another novelty.

Odds and Ends Auction

For Collectors, Dealers, Traders

FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 1937

LINCOLN A. RUSSELL

44 East Broad Street

COLUMBUS, OHIO

A miscellaneous lot of material, consisting of the remains of a dealer's stock, as well as a selection of odd single items, covers, sheets, etc. Material that will interest the collector, the dealer, the trader and exchanger. Something for everyone at your own price.

Only the lots in this sale which are of general interest to collectors will be sold before the Columbus Philatelic Club. This includes the lots of single stamps as well as other lots that are suitable for collectors. The bulk lots and wholesale lots will be sold immediately afterwards at my office.

SALE TO BE HELD IN THE ROOMS OF THE COLUMBUS PHILATELIC CLUB IN THE VIRGINIA HOTEL at the Corner of Gay and Third Streets, at 8 p.m.

TERMS OF SALE

All bids to be by lot number. Bids in multiples of 5c under $1.00 and multiples of 10c over $1.00. Lots will be bought by me at as much below your bid as is possible. All usual auction rules will be observed.

Because of the bulk of the lots in this sale, invoices will be rendered in advance and shipment of lots made on receipt of remittance.

Any items may be returned in three days for cause of defective descriptions.

In making your bids use a blank sheet of paper, list only the lot number and set opposite it the highest price you will pay for the lot.

Address your bids to—

Information, as well as inquiries for this department should be addressed as above.

News. Post office officials intimate that Trans-Atlantic service will be established by Nov. 1. British and American lines will participate between London and New York, flying 2 trips weekly. The northern route will be flown in the summer and a route via the Bermudas and Azores in winter. Flying boats will be used.

Undoubtedly the Lufthansa will also be making regular flights sometime this year with a supply ship used in mid-ocean. It may be that we shall see flying boats of the French, English, German and American lines spanning the Atlantic in regular service just as ships of the various nations ply the seas.

The Pacific operations office of Pan-American Airways write that they have no additional information concerning the extension of FAM 14 to Macao and Hong Kong. They urge that the P. O. D. be contacted for further information.

Braniff Airways are expected to extend their route to Mexico City from Dallas via San Antonio and Monterey about June 1. Earl Doughty, Jr., 903 Liberty St., Dallas, Tex., will hold covers, 1c forwarding postage asked.

10th Anniversary of Lindbergh's flight will have a cachet sponsored by Glenn Platt, 4074 Seyburn Ave., Detroit, Mich., who will mail them from the Detroit Air Mail Field, Detroit being Lindbergh's birthplace. Deadline is May 10 and commems. appreciated.

Statesboro, Ga., will probably dedicate in May or June. C. of C. will mail covers when it does . . . Thomson, Ga., says work stopped, will not be resumed until summer . . . Oxford, Miss., says no dedication planned . . . Visalia, Calif., C. of C. will hold covers for dedication, no date set.

One of the newest liners of the United Air Lines crashed on February 9 in San Francisco Bay. We acknowledge clippings concerning this accident reported in last week's column.

Anyone know of any book published on Air Traffic containing maps, pictures of planes used, etc. from 1926 to date? If you do, advise address of publisher as we have a correspondent who wants same.

We have received inquiries from time to time regarding first flights in the U. S. Send your name to the 2nd Asst. P. P. M. Gen., Washington, D. C., requesting advance notice of first flights.

Parties desiring information concerning African service might do well to contact the Imperial Airways, Croydon Airdrome, London, England. They will have rate information as well.

Another company is Air France, Paris, France, for lines they fly.

Co-ops: Rex Copp, Wm. Bryon, Pan-American Airways, Glenn Platt and others.

ERRORS.

To be or not to be, is an old wheeze, but it seems that some of the boys in the Government printing office would like the UP varieties of the recent bureau prints NOT TO BE called ERRORS. Already the catalog is treating them as such, numbering them as 88A. Personally I look upon them in this manner. If it was the intention of the bureau to precancel all further orders in the same manner as these few UP varieties then it would be just another variety as in the case of local type precancels, but since this happened as a mistake and it seems not to be the intention of the department to precancel further printings in this manner this leaves us little else to call them. True they are not errors in the same sense as the MIKWAUKEE items but nevertheless there seems to be the element of error in the procedure along the line somewhere. Let's hear from a few of you boys about this, are they or are they not errors?

MANCHESTER, CONN.

Every time I open the new catalog I like it better. It really is the most complete catalog we have had in this field so far. Notwithstanding the intensive search for items of certain states there now and then seems to be slip ups that at first make you wonder if your collection is really good. Take for instance Connecticut, it is one of the most sought after states, where specialization is pushed to the nth degree yet I note in my humble accumulation three items that must have slipped by the editor and his cohorts. I refer to the made over So. Manchester, Conn., plate that had the SO, amputated. This caused quite a furor when it happened and one would think that these items would be hounded to their lair and not a one left escape. This amputated type is known as Manchester, Conn., type 3 and only the 10c and 15c comp. perf. items are listed. I note in my collection the 1c, 12c and 20c down comp. perf. Since Conn. was one of the first states to be compiled it is possible that these items are now known but came in too late for listing.

NOTES.

Waiter M. Gray the precancel dealer out Berkeley, Calif., way has entered the auction field. We have at hand his latest auction list, franked with a pair of Berkeley 101s.—H. G. Rickard of Blawnox, Pa., auction list came in with a Jersey City 140 bearing the burden.—Hoover Bros. are having an auction too on March 2nd.—If you are in earnest about your precancel collection and want to buy good items get in on the auction lists of some of these dealers.—I understand that the forthcoming 18th edition bureau catalog will carry illustrations for every type from each city. Too I hear that quite a few items are in for some reduction.—A NAVY precancel from John Roller, Jr. of Coeburn, Va., it's from McKenney, Va., in U-120 reading across.

Atlantic Air Service

Mr. Lawrence Weiss of Clifton, N. J., writes concerning an announcement which he heard over the Radio on February 15th. An initial appropriation of $750,000 has been granted the Assistant Postmaster General for the promotion of passenger and mail service to Southampton, England, by air and the first ship is expected to make the trip late this year. A similar service from England to America is also being planned by British interests.

This therefore is the forerunner of an Atlantic Clipper Service, on the same basis as the Pacific service.

PERU—Provisionals. Below are noted the varieties which appear on the 2c. on 4c. blue-green stamp listed by us January 16th:

- a. No period between "S" and "0"
- b. Period after "2"
- c. No period after "Cts"
- d. "S" omitted
- e. "20 Cts" for "02 Cts"

Varieties appearing on 25c. on 5 sol. listed by us the same time:

- a. double surcharge
- b. No period between "0" and "25 Cts"

(Scott's Monthly Supplement)

The overprint "Ley 8310" chronicled by us January 23rd, means "Law No. 8310."

Another provisional, overprinted the same as those noted Jan. 16th, but the surcharge is horizontal in place of vertical. Surcharge in black:

A119—10c. on 1 sol. dark violet

(Whitfield, King & Co.)

ST. LUCIA—Referring back to our notes of October 17, 1936, we now learn that the Postmaster there advises that he has no knowledge of any such blocks in existence. The block in question came from a sheet #226 and was purchased in St. Lucia in June 1936.

(Gibbons' Stamp Monthly)

(Scott's Monthly Journal)

Whitfield, King & Co., report that they have received three stamps issued by the insurgents and they are inscribed at the foot "JUNTA DE DEFENSA NACIONAL" (National Defence Stamps). They are of pictorial designs and are inscribed with the different names of the towns: 5c., grey-green, Burgos; 15c. grey-green, Zaragoza; and 30c. red, Navarra. They also advise that further printings are being made of these stamps, omitting the inscription "JUNTA DE DEFENSA NACIONAL" and these will form a part of a set of stamps which will be issued in the territory occupied by the insurgents.

STRAITS SETTLEMENTS—Further values. The $5. we are not certain of, for we chronicle a like value last June, tho this is in one color on a green paper, while the previous was two color on green.

Naval Cancels and Cachets

By MARSHALL R. HALL,
ANCS 10

1767 Bedford Road, Columbus, Ohio

J. N. Lawrence, the ANCS Lawrence of Asia, sails from Shanghai on March 9, and thus ends his two years in the Orient during which he serviced many thousands of covers for naval hobbyists. Do not send any more covers to him there, but wait until his new location is published here, as he will carry on after he returns to the states. Furthermore, he wants collectors to know that when the SS Silvercypress, a mail steamer, burned to the water's edge recently, it destroyed 1,164 sacks of mail that was Orient bound. Friend Lawrence fears that perhaps there were in this mail covers destined for him to service and if they never show up, you will know what became of them. He sent a lengthy clipping from the China Press Shipping Green with a full account of the fire.

Paul R. Parrish, book specialist and hobbyist extraordinary, will sponsor another hand drawn cachet, this one for Easter. Limit of one cover per individual, usual forwarding and deadline March 8. Address him at 1115 Taylor, Topeka, Kan.—(F T)

Clyde A. Allen, USS Macdonough, San Diego, Calif., is sponsoring a cachet

LINCOLN A. RUSSELL
Stamps & Philatelic Supplies
44 E. Broad St., Columbus, Ohio

"Kings and Commoners Joined As One"

Up in Detroit a group of philatelists have emphasized the old saying that stamp collecting is "The Hobby of Kings and the King of Hobbies," by adopting as their motto the Latin phrase, "Reges Plebesqui Conjuncti in Uno," which translated means "Kings and Commoners Joined As One." The Club was organized five years ago and is known as the Wolverine Stamp Society. Their membership is limited to twenty-one male collectors. The meetings are held twice each month at the homes of members. The Club owns fifty exhibition frames and easels and can exhibit any type of collection from precancels to the rare United States.

Stamps in the Movies

Mr. F. C. Bundlie of Grand Forks, N. Dak., sends a clipping from a magazine telling the story of "The Mandarin Mystery" as shown on the screen. This story was first published in the Red Book Magazine and is about a rare stamp. Ellery Queen, famous detective is on the case and the picture if as interesting as the original story should be a good one.

Original Gum

The modern craze for condition reaches a highly illogical point in the insistence that every stamp shall possess its original gum, writes Mr. Stanley Phillips in "Gibbons' Stamp Monthly;" for, he points out, in actual fact, the gum is often a source of eventual deterioration to the fabric and colour of the stamp itself. You insist that a stamp shall be in perfect condition and then, by insisting that it shall have its original gum, make it impossible that it shall remain in perfect condition!

It is as though we claimed that no human being could be called handsome or beautiful until we had first assured ourselves that the germs of leprosy or cholera were latent in his system.

The reason for many of the "new shades" which specialists discover from time to time among the early issues in their own collections is simply the reaction of original gum on the paper and ink, which gradually brings about a change in the appearance of the stamps.

NEW UNIT SYSTEM ALBUM PAGES

FOR ALL

20th Century Regular Issues

UNIT No. 6

A new Unit is now ready for all regular issues of 20th Century Postage Stamps which are issued in perforated sheets. This Unit does not include Commemorative issues, neither does it include spaces for imperforate stamps or Coils—These latter will be covered in another set of pages.

UNIT No. 6—40c

(Postage Extra — Shipping Weight 1 Lb.)

This new UNIT NUMBER SIX consists of 16 pages including a title page and an extra blank page. The Unit as we have assembled it makes an extraordinarily attractive setting for these stamps for it shows all of the regularly issued perforated stamps exclusive of Commemoratives (which are shown in Unit No. 1) and the same stamps in imperforate condition or from coils. Thus with these two items omitted, the pages give you a complete and attractive showing of the various stamps without at the same time showing what appears to the non-collector to be an endless repetition of the same stamps. It really makes a very attractive showing and we feel certain you will approve of these new pages.

If you have not yet adopted the LINPRINT Unit Pages, herewith is a complete listing of the Units available. A complete descriptive circular, explaining all about the Unit System Pages, Binders and other Accessories free on request.

One of the features of the LINPRINT Unit System Album Pages is that each year we issue and supply new pages to take care of all stamps issued in the previous twelve months, so that your album can always be kept up to date.
